

DON QUIXOTE

---

A Multidisciplinary Study of a Modern Hero

Conference Saturday, March 3, 2012
University of Portland

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

This conference will emphasize a multidisciplinary study of Don Quixote in order to bring fresh synergy around interpretations of the novel. Through conversations between scholars of history, literature, political science, film, fine arts, theology, and psychology we hope to invigorate Don Quixote as a man of our times. We especially invite papers to explore the novel in a comparative context, its political and social relevance, its utopian possibilities, and its commentaries for other disciplines. Each participant will receive a $600 stipend to defray the costs of travel and accommodation. We expect that the multidisciplinary focus will generate new perspectives and lead to an edited volume publication.

Abstracts should not be longer than 500 words and should address the unique contribution of your paper, your discipline or scholarly method, and your contact information including email.

Please send a brief CV (maximum two pages) with your affiliation and relevant publications only.

Deadline for abstracts: October 15 at midnight to frederki@up.edu and warshaws@up.edu

Notification of acceptance: November 1, 2011

Conference organizers: Laretta Frederking, Kate Regan, Matthew Warshawsky

For more information: Matthew Warshawsky (warshaws@up.edu) (503) 943-8344